

KNOW WHAT YOU WANT
GET WHAT YOU WANT

Isivivane for Change and Transformation is a process that is designed to help you energetically organise either yourself or a team to manifest a defined dream. The resource is written for leadership and management, entrepreneurs, project management, team leaders in private organisations, NGOs and government. You can use the principles here to resolve difficulties, to originate an idea, to manifest your dream or to improve the efficiency and productivity of your team and the organisation.

You can use it to change your life.

Available as a book and as a training course.
